About Filing A Short Term Disability Claim

The following questions and answers will help you file a Short Term Disability (STD) claim with Standard Insurance Company (The Standard). The steps outlined below will enable you to access our efficient claims services quickly and easily.

When Should I Report A Claim?

Report a claim as soon as you believe you will be absent from work beyond 14 calendar days. If you are uncertain about how long you will be absent or whether you should file a claim or not, we suggest that you file your claim. This offers you some peace of mind and allows for The Standard to begin its review and issue a timely payment if appropriate. You may report a claim up to four weeks in advance of a planned disability absence, such as childbirth or scheduled surgery.

How Do I File A Claim?

To file a claim by telephone, contact The Standard's Claim Intake Service Center at 800.378.2395.

To file a claim online, go to www.standard.com, click on "I am an Individual", then choose "File A Claim" on the upper right side of the screen, and lastly, select "You have disability insurance through your employer." Instructions will be provided through the entire claim submission process.

A typical application for disability benefits contains the following documents:

- Employee's Statement¹
- Employer's Statement²
- Attending Physician's Statement (APS)³
- Authorization to Obtain and Release Information

- Group Plan number: 649740
- Name and Social Security number
- Last day you were at work
- Nature of claim/medical information
- Physician's contact information (name, address, phone and fax number)³

Portland, OR 97208

Or if you prefer, you may fax completed forms to our office at 800.378.6053.

How Long Does It Normally Take To Make A Claim Decision?

Once The Standard receives the required paperwork, which includes the Employee's Statement, Employer's Statement, Attending Physician's Statement and Authorization to Obtain and Release Information, it will take approximately one week to make a claim decision. If we have not made a decision within one week, you will be notified with additional details.

If My Claim For Benefits Is Approved, How Long Will It Take To Receive My First Check?

Once you have served the 14-day Benefit Waiting Period, have exhausted all available sick time and your claim has been approved, then STD benefit payments can be paid. STD benefit payments will be paid in arrears on a weekly basis. In most cases, checks are mailed on Wednesday of each week. STD benefit payments that are payable for retroactive claims will be mailed following claim approval. STD checks will be mailed directly to your residence.

If you have already filed a claim, please call The Standard's Disability Benefits toll-free number, 800.368.2859. If you are looking for general information, please contact your benefits administrator.
